Brethren,

October was a month full of Masonic activity, let's recap.

- First off thanks to Brothers Gordon Buss, Dave Dunlavy, Warren Leeps and Donald Moore for helping with the Barthell Eastern Star Nursing Home cookout.
- At the Decorah Scottish Rite Dinner two of our members and a new member were elected to the board. Eric Sommermeyer is President, John Sommermeyer is Vice-President and Tim Felton is Secretary/Treasurer.
- The Fire Department appreciation was a big hit, thanks to Brother Warren Leeps for all his work.
- You may notice that the awning in front of our building has been removed for safety reasons and soon our new front door will be installed.

We have a lot going on in November and want you involved!!!!

- ELECTIONS FOR 2010 OFFICERS IS SET FOR NOVEMBER 9TH, 2009 at our stated meeting. Would you and are you one to step up for an officer's position? Please be at our meeting to be part of our election, show your support for our new officers and the direction of our Lodge.
- Brother Karl Jacobson asked me to remind our Brothers about their donations to the Trout Run Bike Trail wall.
- Keep Saturday, November 21st 2009, open for dinner at the Oaks Restaurant for a Lodge informal dinner. Bring that special Lady along for a little fellowship. Plan on dinner at 6:30 p.m. Please let me know, if you will be joining us by November 19th, 2009, so I can make reservations. Call me at (563) 379-0852.
