

November 6, 2020

Our group has lost another member. I received a phone call today informing me that Carol Weigle's husband, Bernard, passed away last month. I don't know the exact date or any particulars. I was just asked to pass this information on to you all. Our sympathy to you and your family Carol. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. The Class of '57.